

Larry D. Gibson

Board Member

Bio

Larry D. Gibson, associate minister at First Baptist Church Hampton, has had a life-long passion for the betterment of youth. He mentors youth in the local school divisions and communities of Hampton and Newport News, Virginia.

Minister Gibson has been involved in juvenile detention and prison outreach for over 30 years. His prison ministry has led him to Texas, Ohio, Kentucky, Georgia, New Jersey, West Virginia, and New York. He facilitates the Fatherhood Program for Newport News City Jail, meeting monthly with incarcerated men, to teach parenting skills, relationship building, character development and Bible study. Facilitator for the Promise Program at Hampton University, a board member of Sickle Cell Anemia of Hampton Roads (SCAHR), participant of Hampton City Diversity College and a current member of Project 1619, Inc.

Minister Gibson's travels has led him to countries throughout Afrika where he has led Ethics Conferences empowering (Ujana) youth and adolescence in Character Education, Relationship Development, Conflict Resolution, Spiritual and Ethical Awareness.

He was chosen by the Mayor of Hampton and City Council to serve as a commissioner for the developmental planning of the 1619 400th Commemoration.

